WALT WHITMAN CIGAR

Who can read after the Master—Whitman—without—knowing him as one who would select that which gratified—satisfied—pleased.

Who then who loves the Master but who can understand that we who make cigars are trying in our humble way to make a cigar that will to the extent of our craft-skill — knowledge — experience — resources — honor a worthy name?

Only you who have bitten—tasted—lit—inhaled—enjoyed—the aroma fragrance—boquet—quality goodness—Havana—mildness of these Walt Whitman cigars know how we have labored:—studied—worked—blended—re-
